

Reject Outsider's Meddling in Alaska

The Alaska Center has endorsed Ballot Measure 1. Before you vote, get the facts about The Alaska Center and their ongoing efforts to restrict development in our state.

---

- According to its own website, The Alaska Center's three biggest funders are based in San Francisco and Washington, DC – Tides Advocacy Fund, League of Conservation Voters, and Sixteen Thirty Fund.
- Tides Advocacy Fund supports initiatives to "KEEP FOSSIL FUELS IN THE GROUND"
- The Alaska Center is the state chapter for the League of Conservation Voters, a national group that supports the GREEN NEW DEAL
- The Sixteen Thirty Fund has ties to the Sierra Club who celebrated Shell cancelling multi-billion dollar investments in Alaska.
- In 2018, The Alaska Center spent hundreds of thousands of dollars in Outside money supporting the Yes for Salmon Ballot Measure. The Anchorage Daily News said the measure would have had "substantial negative impact on Alaska's economy." Alaska voters defeated the measure that year with a 62-to-37 margin.
- The group was previously known as "the Alaska Center for the Environment." In 2016 they changed their name in order to "appeal to people who don't like the word 'environment.'"