

Kelly C Tshibaka

8/16/11

To: Kelly C Tshibaka >

Update on Kelly: The Verdict is in ... NOT GUILTY!!!

Dear Friends,

I am writing to let you know the outcome of the federal investigation into allegations that I falsified my time and attendance reports: it is finished and I have been completely exonerated!!!

I was falsely accused by a "friend". But God said No weapon formed against you will prosper; and every tongue that accuses you in judgment you will condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their vindication is from Me. This is my heritage and He has vindicated me!

The investigators finalized their report, without receiving my exculpatory evidence, and concluded I was guilty. This looked really bad for me. But God said, "The Lord will fight for you while you remain silent." And that's exactly what happened! My management took issue with the report and with how the investigation was conducted. They discounted it almost completely before even receiving my evidence! Then my evidence sealed it for them - I have been vindicated! Not only that, but I have been offered the choice to work anywhere else in my agency. So, not only has the Lord delivered from the false accusations that were made against me, He also has